A Property Owner's Guide to the Open Rolls Period in 10 Easy Steps

Mark your calendar: the rolls are open July 17 – August 15.

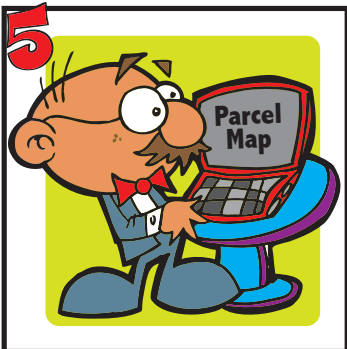

Go online and look up your property by using the "Search Records" function at nolaassessor.com.

Ask yourself: does the estimated market value reflect what the property would sell for today?

If that value looks fair to you, then you're done.

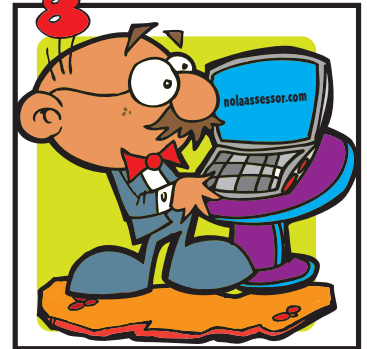

Click on "Show Parcel Map" from your property record at nolaassessor.com to see a satellite image of your property.

If you think your property value is assessed incorrectly, go to the Assessor's Office for a meeting with a Customer Service Representative. This is the start of an "informal appeal" process.

Bring with you photos and documents that explain why the value should be changed. Documents should include a recent appraisal (if available), homeowners insurance, or estimate of cost of repair from a contractor.

You may submit appeals online by visiting nolaassessor.com and clicking the box "File Appeal Online." If the Assessor's Office cannot resolve the issue, the appeal is forwarded to the Board of Review.

If you think the value is still incorrect, you may submit, via mail or online, a formal Board of Review appeal to the Assessor's Office between July 17 and no later than 4:00 p.m. August 18.

If you or the Assessor's Office disagree with the Board of Review's decision, appeals can be submitted to the Louisiana Tax Commission.
